

OFFICE OF EXECUTIVE POLICY AND PROGRAMS TELECOMMUTING POLICY AND PROCEDURE

THE LANGUAGE USED IN THIS DOCUMENT DOES NOT CREATE AN EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT BETWEEN THE EMPLOYEE AND THE AGENCY. THIS DOCUMENT DOES NOT CREATE ANY CONTRACTUAL RIGHTS OR ENTITLEMENTS. THE AGENCY RESERVES THE RIGHT TO REVISE THE CONTENT OF THIS DOCUMENT, IN WHOLE OR IN PART. NO PROMISES OR ASSURANCES, WHETHER WRITTEN OR ORAL, WHICH ARE CONTRARY TO OR INCONSISTENT WITH THE TERMS OF THIS PARAGRAPH CREATE ANY CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT.

I. Purpose

To establish a telecommuting program within the Governor's Office (Agency) as provided by Section 8-11-15 of the South Carolina Code of Laws which states " State agencies may use alternative work locations, including telecommuting, that result in greater efficiency and cost savings".

II. Definitions

The Official Work Location is the Governor's Office location to which the employee is assigned. It remains the primary work location even if participating in telecommuting. The Alternate Work Location is the employee's telecommuting work address. The alternate work location is documented in the employee's telecommuting agreement.

III. Policy

Telecommuting is a flexible work arrangement that allows an employee to work from home, or in the field with their home as the primary site. Telecommuting is a management option and not a universal employee benefit or right. It is the Agency's option to allow an employee to telecommute.

Telecommuting is a work arrangement in which selected State employees are allowed to perform the normal duties and responsibilities of their positions, through the use of computers or other telecommunication equipment, at home or at an alternate work location apart from the employee's usual location of work. Telecommuting may be a part-time or a full-time arrangement. The employee may be directed to report to the official work location on a scheduled or an as-needed basis.

The Agency will identify the job classes or positions with duties or portions of duties considered appropriate for telecommuting on a case-by-case basis as applications are received. Requests for telecommuting must be approved by Office/Division Management, the Human Resources Office, and the Deputy Chief of Staff for Administration.

Employees entering into a telecommuting agreement may or may not be assigned personal office space or a workstation at the official work location based on space availability.

IV. Employee Eligibility

To be eligible to apply for telecommuting, an employee must have completed six months of satisfactory employment with the Agency. This six-month requirement may be waived at the discretion of the Office/Division Director and the Human Resources Office. Employees in a warning period of substandard performance are not eligible for telecommuting.

V. Application and Employee Selection

Participation in telecommuting should be based on the ability of the employee to perform tasks that can be completed from an alternate workspace, such as a home office, and management's assessment of the employee's ability to complete these tasks satisfactorily. An employee must complete an Application for Telecommuting and submit the request through his/her supervisor, approval by the Office/Division Director or his/her designee. The Human Resources Administrator and the Deputy Chief of Staff for Administration will be the final approvals prior to the employee beginning the telecommute program.

Management or the Human Resources Office may request additional information after reviewing the telecommuting application if deemed necessary. Selection of employees shall not be arbitrary nor based on seniority but shall be based on specific work related criteria established by management. The Agency will identify a list of skills and characteristics deemed necessary for the employee to be a successful telecommuter. Only employees meeting these standards will be approved for telecommuting. The Agency's decision whether to grant a request to telecommute is final.

VI. Telecommuting Employee's Conditions of Employment

The employee's duties, responsibilities, and conditions of employment remain the same as if the employee were working at the employee's official work location. The employee will continue to comply with all Federal laws, State laws, and Agency policies and procedures while working at the alternate workspace.

Telecommuting will not adversely affect an employee's eligibility for advancement or any other employee right or benefit. An employee will be compensated for all pay, leave, overtime, and travel entitlement as if all duties were being performed at the employee's official work location.

Telecommuting is not a substitute for child or elder care.

VII. Hours of Work, Overtime Hours, and Time Reporting

Work hours, compensatory time, and leave benefits will not change as a result of telecommuting. Requests to work overtime or use sick, annual, or other leave must be approved by the Agency in the same manner as when the employee works at the employee's official work location. A telecommuting employee shall not work overtime unless authorized in advance by his or her supervisor. Regular communication through weekly or monthly meetings, teleconferencing, or in-office days is required. An Employee must forego telecommuting if needed in the official work location on a regularly scheduled telecommuting day. Telecommuting employees will attend called meetings throughout the workweek as instructed by the manager or supervisor. The manager or supervisor should provide reasonable notice whenever necessary and possible. However, the employee may be directed to report to the official work location without advance notice, as needed.

The Agency will establish the schedule of hours for a telecommuting employee. Any deviation from this approved schedule must be approved in advance. The Agency's guidelines for variable workweek schedule or work hours schedule (flex time) apply to telecommuting employees. The Agency must be able to contact the employee during the scheduled work hours.

VIII. Test Period

A test period of 3 – 6 months will be established. The employee and management will evaluate the success of the telecommuting arrangement.

IX. Designating the Alternate Work Space

The employee must agree to designate a separate workspace in the remote site for the purposes of telecommuting and maintain this area in a safe condition, free from hazards and other dangers to the employee, the Agency's equipment, and confidential information. It is the employee's obligation to ensure the safety of the alternate workspace and compliance with all health, safety, and confidentiality requirements. The employee agrees to complete and return the Agency Telecommuting Work Space Checklist. The employee must submit this checklist to the Agency before he/she may begin to telecommute. The employee agrees that the Agency shall have reasonable access to the designated alternate workspace for all reasonable purposes, including but not limited to inspection of the space, supervision of the employee, and retrieval of Agency-owned property and information.

No employee engaged in telecommuting will be allowed to conduct face-to-face, Agency-related business with non-agency personnel at the alternate work location. The employee will be liable for injuries or damages in the alternate work location to the person or property of third parties of any members of the employee's family, and agrees to indemnify the Agency for any such claims.

The employee understands that the Agency will not reimburse the cost of home-related expenses, including but not limited to heat, water, electricity, and insurance.

X. Office Inspections

The Agency reserves the right to inspect the designated alternate workspace to investigate whether all requirements are met.

XI. Workers' Compensation

The alternate workspace, as approved, is considered an extension of the employee's official work location; therefore, workers' compensation will continue to exist for the employee when performing official work duties in the defined alternate workspace during approved telecommuting hours. Any work-related injuries must be reported to the employee's supervisor immediately, and the employee must complete all necessary or management requested documents regarding the injury.

XII. Security of State-Owned Equipment and Documents

The Agency must establish security controls and conditions for use of the State-owned equipment for the regular office will also apply to the alternate work location.

All official Agency records, files, and documents must be protected from unauthorized disclosure or damage and returned safely to the official work location whenever requested by the Agency. The employee will return all Agency equipment, files, documents and supplies to the Agency immediately upon termination of telecommuting or of the employee's employment.

XIII. State-Owned Equipment

Support, maintenance, repair, and replacement of State-owned equipment issued to telecommuters are the responsibility of the Agency. In the event of equipment malfunction, the telecommuter must notify the supervisor immediately. If repairs will take some time, the telecommuter may be directed to report to the official work location until the equipment is usable.

XIV. Employee-Owned Equipment

Use of an employee-owned computer is the decision of the telecommuter with the understanding that no on-site or telephonic support will be provided from any Agency resource. Additionally, the purchase of software and installation and configuration on employee-owned equipment are the responsibility of the telecommuter. All support will be the responsibility of the telecommuter. Configuration, maintenance, and repairs to personally owned equipment will be the responsibility of the employee.

XV. Business Telephone Access

If appropriate and necessary for the employee's job duties, the Agency will arrange for the installation of a business telephone line or a dedicated data circuit at the alternate workspace. These lines are to be used solely for conducting Agency business.

XVI. Computer Responsibilities

The employee agrees to abide by any rules promulgated by the Agency concerning the use of computer equipment (including protecting the employee's home personal computer against computer "viruses"), and understands that these rules may be changed at any time. The employee agrees to follow the Agency's procedures for network access and to take all necessary steps to protect the integrity of systems including but not limited to: (1) Not making passwords available to anyone else; not allowing others to see passwords when the employee is working; not posting passwords where others can see them; and not leaving the password-accessed systems "live" when leaving the work area; and (2) software used at the remote work site must be approved by the manager of Technology before installation. The Agency-owned software may not be duplicated.

XVII. Termination of Participation

An employee's participation in the Agency's telecommuting program is voluntary. The Agency or employee may terminate the telecommuting arrangement at any time with or without cause. This termination is final in terms of administrative review. If the employee unreasonably terminates the telecommuting agreement, the Agency may require the employee to reimburse any expenses that the Agency has contributed to establish the alternate workspace.

The availability of telecommuting for employees of the Governor's Office can be discontinued at any time at the Agency's discretion. Both the Agency and the employee will give two weeks notice of termination, if possible.

Revised 7/04